

Career Labs

2024

Making the world of work a better place

The UNDP Career Labs are dynamic, online learning sessions designed to assist UNDP personnel in planning and advancing their careers. Unlike traditional webinars, these Virtual Career Labs create an interactive environment that promotes “learning by doing,” encouraging employees to adopt proactive career management behaviours.

Key Features:

Interactive Learning: Exercises, tools, and guidance to facilitate active participation and practical application of career development strategies.

Accessible Scheduling: Delivered monthly across different time zones, with recordings available for on-demand access, ensuring flexibility for all staff members.

Diverse Topics: Covering a range of subjects pertinent to career growth, including:

- Strategies to Accelerate Career Development
- Effective Communication and Relationship Building
- Overcoming Self-doubt And Building Confidence
- Managing People Through Change
- Managing Teams
- CV and Interview Support

By participating in these labs, delegates can gain valuable insights and skills to navigate their career paths effectively, aligning personal aspirations with organisational goals.
